Name: _____ Date: _____

Australian Government

Read the sentences and fill in the gaps with words from the box.

Words may be used once or more than once and others may not be used

democracy, parliament, election, Prime Minister, governor-general, constitution, referendum, bicameral, laws, High Court, House of Representatives, Senate, compulsory, federal, state, local, voting, government, cabinet, opposition

1. Australia is a _____ meaning people vote for their leaders.
2. The Australian _____ is responsible for making and enforcing laws.
3. The leader of the Australian government is called the _____
4. The _____ represents the King in Australia and gives royal assent to laws.
5. The Australian government is divided into three levels _____ _____ and _____
6. The _____ is the set of rules that guides how Australia is governed.
7. A _____ is a national vote to change the Australian Constitution.
8. The main job of parliament is to create and pass _____
9. The two houses of parliament are the _____ and the _____
10. The _____ is the highest court in Australia and interprets the Constitution.
11. The _____ is a group of senior ministers who make major decisions for the government.
12. The _____ is the political party or group that is not in government.

Answer Key

Australian Government

Read the sentences and fill in the gaps with words from the box.

Words may be used once or more than once and others may not be used

democracy, parliament, election, Prime Minister, governor-general, constitution, referendum, bicameral, laws, High Court, House of Representatives, Senate, compulsory, federal, state, local, voting, government, cabinet, opposition

1. Australia is a _____ meaning people vote for their leaders.
2. The Australian _____ is responsible for making and enforcing laws.
3. The leader of the Australian government is called the _____
4. The _____ represents the King in Australia and gives royal assent to laws.
5. The Australian government is divided into three levels _____ _____ and _____
6. The _____ is the set of rules that guides how Australia is governed.
7. A _____ is a national vote to change the Australian Constitution.
8. The main job of parliament is to create and pass _____
9. The two houses of parliament are the _____ and the _____
10. The _____ is the highest court in Australia and interprets the Constitution.
11. The _____ is a group of senior ministers who make major decisions for the government.
12. The _____ is the political party or group that is not in government.

1. Australia is a democracy, meaning people vote for their leaders.
2. The Australian government is responsible for making and enforcing laws.
3. The leader of the Australian government is called the Prime Minister.
4. The Governor-General represents the King in Australia and gives royal assent to laws.
5. The Australian government is divided into three levels: federal, state, and local.
6. The constitution is the set of rules that guides how Australia is governed.
7. A referendum is a national vote to change the Australian Constitution.
8. The main job of parliament is to create and pass laws.
9. The two houses of parliament are the House of Representatives and the Senate.
10. The High Court is the highest court in Australia and interprets the Constitution.
11. The Cabinet is a group of senior ministers who make major decisions for the government.
12. The Opposition is the political party or group that is not in government.